

KLEX THE CALC

Aliens have invaded the Earth and will not leave until someone calculates the meaning of life. After many sleepless nights, Klex the Calculator, and his pal, Dr Quinn McCoy (Doc) discover the required calculation. But a group of rebel aliens, not wanting to leave earth, capture Klex and scatter his parts across the globe to stop the formula from being calculated.

Klex and Doc must find the missing parts and get to the alien leader to compute the formula and defeat the alien invasion once and for all.

- Squash pesky spiders, worms, and frogs.
- Navigate through dark areas using Klex's screen light.
- Complete levels before running out of battery life.
- Avoid alien attacks and laser beams.
- Calculate the meaning of life.
